 The PG rating is meant as a warning to parents to give "parental guidance." May contain some material parents might not like for their young children.

 The PG-13 rating is meant as a warning to parents to be cautious. Some material may be inappropriate for pre-teenagers.

 PG & PG-13 movies may contain elements that parents may find unsuitable for children in the opinion of the ratings board and would encourage parents to check out the film for themselves before allowing their younger children to watch it.
