From the Governing Body:
March 13, 2020

In effort to further protect our residents and employees from the spread of the Coronavirus, all Howell Township public buildings will be closed to the public, beginning Saturday at 0800. Township employees will still be reporting to work during this time.

Our Municipal Court has been ordered closed for the next two weeks by order of Judge Schroeder-Clark, who has indicated that all cases will be adjourned during this time.

Staff will still be available by telephone and email for inquiries.

Please visit www.twp.howell.nj.us/covid19 for the most recent updates being posted from the Township and the Howell School Board.
